

Cross-cut travertine “Venato Scuro”

The Venato scuro travertine selection has a beige background and veined and spotted pieces primarily with a dark background. Together with Terra Chiara (PDR013), is one of the typical colours of Rapolano Stone.

The clouding and veining featured in this travertine, along with the hardness of the material, make it particularly suited and appreciated for outdoor tiles.

- Easy to clean
- It exhibits color variations and veining
